Sotiris Patatzis' "Don Camilo" with Yorgos Partsalakis at Athens' Vembo Theatre

Vembo Theatre in Athens presents this year, from October 25 and till the end of the theatre season, Sotiris Patatzis' satire "Don Camilo." Director of the performance is Thanassis Theologis; Yorgos Partsalakis holds the leading part. The performance was presented this summer all over Greece. Still in service Mayor Fluratos who leans towards the Christian-Democratic party enters his name again for the next four years; only this time his opponent is Pepone, a man of left conviction. The Christian-Democrats, fearing that they might lose the elections, make up several political tricks to win the elections...

They take on their side Don Camilo, spokesman of the church, in order to help them win. The events and the comic situations succeed one another so quickly that Pepone becomes Mayor for the first time. During all these, Pepone's son and Don Camilo's niece fall in love. Their love will succeed what politics wasn't able to...

Sotiris Patatzis borrowed his characters, priest Don Camilo and Mayor Pepone, from the famous humorous sketches of Italian author Giovanni Guareschi; however, he created his own myth, characters and dialogues, aiming to create a political satire.
